

Konstantinos Kousaxidis

Ph.D. Candidate in History at Panteion University, Department of History and Political Science. Received his Bachelor degree from the University of Macedonia, Department of Balkan, Slavic and Oriental Studies, an MBA from EEDA, and his Masters degree in Modern History from Panteion University, Department of History and Political Science. Speaks Greek, English, French, Italian and Turkish. Employed at the Hellenic League for Human Rights with the duties of secretarial support and project monitoring. Participating in the Seventh Framework Programme, Project “EU Border Regions”, EU External Borders and the Immediate Neighbors. Analyzing Regional Development Options Through Policies and Practices of Cross-Border Cooperation. His first publication “Language, origin, linguistic assimilation. Exploring the collective consciousness of Kizderveniots of Paionia”, is scheduled to be published within 2013 in Syghrona Themata. Member of the Hellenic League for Human Rights and of the Research Center for Minority Groups.