

Prof. George Th. Mavrogordatos studied Politics, Economics, and Law at the University of Athens, and holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of California, Berkeley. For thirty years (1982-2012) he taught Modern History, Comparative Politics, and Political Sociology at the University of Athens, including courses on the American political system and on Athenian democracy. His books include Stillborn Republic, for which he received the Woodrow Wilson Foundation Award of the American Political Science Association in 1984. His most recent book (in Greek) was entitled Pressure Groups and Democracy. His most recent article: "Two Puzzles Involving Socrates," Classical World 105.1 (2011), pp. 3-23.