

Stavros Th. ANESTIDIS

Ταφσιγιέ.

Πίλ ούμοϋμ μουχατζίρ καρηνταντασλαρημηζά
The refugees' agonizing political choices
during the period of Venizelist hegemony

The paper is based on two single page brochures addressing the Turkish speaking refugees who had settled in Greece. The brochures, published during the period 1929-1935, bring to the surface the reactions of the refugees to the policies of the Venizelist governments highlighting at the same time their strong bond with Karamanli as their mother tongue.